

Stupid, stupid, naive, pathetic Russian financial genius of "Baldness". They underestimated the fighting qualities of Jamison Firestone. December 15, 1996 in the office of OOO "Firestone Duncan" on Dolgorukovskaya street, house 21, structure 1, broke two dozen strong men, some of whom were in police uniforms and with Kalashnikovs. The CEO and the chief auditor Esipova escorted to the meeting room where Jamison Firestone in the presence of six armed strangers announced that within a few months, he recorded the illegal activities of the company, namely the embezzlement of funds in the interests of William Browder, by creating illegal schemes for payment of taxes.

What's more he is not willing to participate in illegal activities that appealed to the Embassy of the United States, which, in turn, has addressed with the statement in FSB and the tax police. At these words the unknown thugs present at the conversation, began to stir. One of them silently drew from his pocket the certificate of the employee of FSB and the other is the certificate of the employee of tax police. They also explained that in respect of the CEO and the auditor has already issued an arrest warrant for 30 days on suspicion in committing a crime. Was at that time a presidential decree. The resolution guests, however, did not show.

Saying all this, Jamison hid behind the whip and pulled out his stick. He said that gives the CEO and the auditor the chance to sign the documents on liquidation of OOO "Firestone Duncan" and the appointment of Jamison Firestone and Andrei Sandakov members of the liquidation Committee. Head of audit Department Igor Esipov signed the documents immediately. As he experienced the prisoner immediately assessed the situation and realized that with the cops better not to argue. But intelligent CEO seropedica. The result was handcuffed, removed from office and put in the car. A little ride around the area offered a choice of death or prison and to support their arguments several times punched in the kidneys. As a result of this debate the right Firestone documents were signed, the CEO and the auditor was allowed to get up to the office to pick up clothing since it was winter, and then both thrown out.

Newly the liquidation Committee has not engaged in liquidation of the company and transfer all assets, property and existing contracts for
